

RESULTS OF THE RACES. BASEBALL. U. S. SECRET SERVICE AFTER ANARCHISTS.

FIRST DETAILS FROM PEKING.

WAR DECLARED BY CHINA JUNE 20

Diplomatic Relations Were Broken Off, Then Shelling Began—Christians Held Out in Legations, Cathedral and Palace.

LONDON, July 30.—6.10 P. M.—A special despatch from Tientsin says: "A Peking message dated July 21 reports that the first outside news reached there July 18. The failure of the relief expedition made the siege far more perilous.

On June 19 the Chinese Foreign Office broke off diplomatic relations. June 20 China declared war.

"Baron Von Ketteler and Francis James, an English professor, were murdered.

"Over 400 non-combatants occupied the British Legation.

"I understand converts are holding the North Cathedral. A thousand refugees occupied the palace of Prince Lu.

"A truce began July 17, after twenty-six days of fierce assault. On night the shelling was uninterrupted for six hours."

"At last, after twenty-six days of fierce assault, a truce was agreed on through the British Legation, and began on July 17. One night the shelling went on uninterruptedly for six hours.

"Four attempts were made to set fire to the British Legation buildings. One of these attempts resulted in the destruction of Hamilton College.

"The cowardice of the Chinese was the only thing that prevented the successful rushing of the British Legation.

"The total number who have been killed or who have died is as follows: Germans, 10; Japanese, 10; French, 11; British, 5, including Capt. Stroud and David Oliphant; Russians, 4; Americans, 7; Italians, 7, and converts, 9. Ninety-eight persons have been wounded, including Capt. Wray Holliday. Correspondents Morrison, Reid and Temyer are sick.

"The defenders killed at least 2,000 Chinese during the various attacks. The Americans occupied a strong position on the city wall.

"Provisions are still sufficient and the hospital arrangements are excellent. Everybody is much exhausted owing to the continuous work.

"An edict formerly issued by the Government commanded the Boxers and ordered all missionaries to leave the interior. It also commanded the viceroys to assist the Chinese at Peking. But an edict issued on July 18 now enjoining the viceroys to protect the missionaries and foreigners and compensate them for losses.

"The report that a large relief force leaving Tientsin has produced the DEAD IN A MANHOLE; RESCUERS OVERCOME.

Heroism Shown by Three Workmen in Effort to Save Comrade in Pit.

Four men were overcome by sewer gas in a man-hole of the Brooklyn Water Works System, on Ridgewood Heights, this afternoon, and one was taken out dead. The other three, who had gone into the hole separately to rescue the man subsequently taken out dead, were partially asphyxiated, but recovered.

The men were working at a pumping station at Wyckoff and Vermont avenues. It was found necessary to close a water valve.

This is reached through a man-hole, gas accumulates in these cavities and the men usually wait until they are thoroughly ventilated before venturing into them.

John Kelly, thirty-five years old, of 201 Pearl street, was assigned to close the gate. He did not wait until the man-hole was free from the gas, but started to descend on a ladder.

He had gone only half way when he cried weakly to be hauled out. His companions knew what the trouble was and made efforts to reach him. As they were about to grab him he toppled from the ladder to the bottom of the pit.

Ropes were hastily procured, and Frank McCarthy, of 309 Atlantic avenue, with a strand about his waist, was lowered into the hole. He had barely reached the bottom when he was overcome and was hauled to the surface unconscious.

John Cox, of Ridgewood Heights, made the next attempt, but the gas almost asphyxiated him before he was half-way down. In their haste to pull him out his companions struck the man's head against the brick wall of the vault and Cox was taken out bleeding and senseless.

While efforts were being made to resuscitate McCarthy and Cox more volunteers to rescue Kelly were called for.

Assistant Engineer Fred Hancock responded.

He reached the bottom safely and was about to fasten a rope about Kelly when he dropped unconscious.

The remaining man was becoming desperate. They felt sure that Kelly was dead, but were not satisfied to leave him lying in the pit.

John Haviland thought he could stand the trial and was lowered after he had wrapped a damp cloth about his mouth and nostrils.

He was hastily lowered, and managed to make the rope fast about Kelly and was pulled to the surface with the victim.

An ambulance from St. Mary's Hospital had arrived by this time. Kelly was pronounced dead. The three unconscious men were revived and sent home.

Dr. Frank W. Robertson, sr., resident physician, late of Bellevue Hospital, New York, has been appointed his successor.

Shot Himself in Central Park.

A man supposed to be D. Daly, thirty years old, of 35 West Fifty-fifth street, committed suicide in Central Park this morning. He shot himself with a revolver. The body was taken to the morgue.

KEEPING CLOSE WATCH ON ANARCHISTS.

The Paterson police have decided to permit no more meetings of Anarchists. Ernesta Crevalla, the girl Anarchist, and other leaders are being kept under strict surveillance.

BIG CROWD SAW FOUR GIRLS DROWN.

Misses Lowe and Misses Lonsdale Go to Death in Ocean City Surf.

(Special to The Evening World.)

OCEAN CITY, N. J., July 31.—Four young women were drowned to-day in sight of a great crowd of persons on the beach. They were:

VIRGINIA LOWE, of Germantown, Philadelphia.
ELSIE LOWE, her sister.
JENNIE LONSDALE, of Windmere, Pa.

BERTIE LONSDALE, her sister.
The ages of the victims ranged from eighteen to twenty years.

There were five in the party. They were having a jolly time splashing about in the breakers when suddenly they were carried out by a heavy undertow.

Their screams for help attracted the attention of life guard Foster and some male bathers, who succeeded after desperate struggles in bringing the young women ashore.

The Lowe sisters were dead when they were placed on the beach.

The Lonsdale girls showed signs of life and Mrs. Abbott, Alton, Garrison and Norton were summoned as speedily as possible and did all they could to save their lives, but in vain.

The fifth young woman regained consciousness, and at last accounts was likely to recover.

They were about 100 feet out from the shore when the undertow caught them and carried them out. A large number of persons on the beach saw the tragedy and the heroic efforts made by Life Guard Foster to save the lives of the Government Detectives at Work in Paterson on Humbert's Assassination Plot—Bresci's Home Searched and Letters Taken by Police—Mrs. Bresci Tells Evening World of Husband's Life.

REGICIDE BRESCI HAD PLOTTED HIS CRIME FOR MANY DAYS.

Milan Police Discover Papers Connecting Him with Anarchists Here—Assassin Is Cynical and Declares He Is Ready to Resume Business if Released.

ROME, July 31.—The police are pushing inquiries in all directions, and have found that the assassin Bresci when he was searching for lodgings on Friday at Monza was accompanied by a young man, whom the police are now seeking. The pistol the assassin used was a new and superior weapon marked "Massachusetts."

THE POLICE OF MILAN SEARCHED THE HOUSE OF A MAN NAMED RANELLA, AND FOUND IMPORTANT PAPERS SHOWING THAT BRESCI HAD RELATIONS WITH PERSONS IN THE UNITED STATES AND THAT COMMUNICATIONS HAD PASSED BETWEEN HIM AND THEM IN CONNECTION WITH THE CRIME.

Bresci and another Tuscan frequented cafes in Milan, where they were overheard discussing a big scheme that would astonish the world. Everything goes to show that the crime was long premeditated, and the police are now being charged with want of foresight.

It appears that the cordons formed upon the arrival of the King at the fete ground were withdrawn prior to his departure. As the King was leaving a sort of seizure occurred, probably prearranged to distract the attention of the Carabinieri.

The King was so pained with his welts as at Monza and felt so safe that he turned to his aide and said: "I'd like to return about," but he was released.

Bresci maintains an air of utmost cynicism. In the course of his examination he declared himself to be a revolutionary Anarchist, and said he was ready to resume operations if he were released.

United States Secret Service men have arrived at Paterson, where they are investigating the Anarchist society, among whose members the plot to assassinate King Humbert is believed to have been hatched.

The particular aim of the detectives is to verify or disprove the story that Bresci had an accomplice—a woman—among the Paterson Anarchist group. Agents of the Italian Government are also at work in the Italian quarter.

The Mayor of Paterson and Chief of Police Graul were in secret consultation for a long time this afternoon.

They declined to make public the result of their conference, but it is generally believed that they were considering the advisability of arresting certain suspects among the avowed Anarchists.

Up to this time the Chief has kept repeating that there were no Anarchists in Paterson, in spite of the fact that an Anarchist paper is published there and that Ernesta Crevalla has boldly announced that she is an Anarchist and a member of an Anarchist society.

Ernesta Crevalla, the girl Anarchist, was almost mobbed by a crowd of men and boys as she left her room at the Paragon Silk Mill this afternoon. The police rescued her.

POLICE SEIZE BRESCI'S LETTERS TO HIS WIFE.

Mrs. Sophie Bresci, whose husband assassinated King Humbert, left her home in West Hoboken today, and it was supposed she had fled. Later in the day, however, she returned.

Before she went away, Police Capt. Usher, of the West Hoboken station, went to the house with the Italian Vice-Consul and a squad of police. He made a thorough search of the premises and carried away a number of letters.

Capt. Usher declared that there were none of recent date in the batch, in fact none bearing date later than 1898 was found.

When Mrs. Bresci returned home later she declared that Capt. Usher did not tell the truth when he said that he failed to find any recent letters from Bresci.

"Capt. Usher came here with the Ital-
